

Appendix 7

Year-Round Feasibility Study

Introduction

For all projects seeking an initial SAB approval, a study examining the feasibility of implementing a year-round multi-track education program within the district must be approved by Study and Waiver Review Committee.

Note: The necessity for a district to prepare this study can be waived under certain circumstances. Please contact the Study and Waiver Review Committee for exceptions.

Study and Waiver Review Committee

The Study and Waiver Review committee shall consist of two members, including one representative selected by each of the following:

- California State Department of Education
- State Allocation Board

Committee Responsibilities

The committee shall meet monthly to review all studies and waivers that have been submitted and shall be responsible for the:

- review and approval of the district's feasibility study report; and
 - review and recommendation to the SAB for approval of the district's request to waive the requirement to conduct a feasibility study; and
 - review and recommendation to the SAB for approval of the district's request to waive the criteria for funding priority; and
 - submission of agenda items to the SAB regarding appeals, waiver of the study, or waiver of the criteria to receive funding priority. ☺
-